

ANIMOR

BIO

"With our music we hope to be able to unite different genres creating an enveloping sound that goes straight to the heart..."

WHO IS ANIMOR?

Animor is a Swiss-Finnish indie-pop collective, originating from Lugano, Switzerland. The band came into existence in 2018, founded by Swiss native lead singer Romina Kalsi and Finnish native Tobias Granbacka. They were later joined by Daniel Fagerudd, a long-time friend of Tobias.

All three core members are prolific musicians and talented songwriters. They have been creating captivating music since 2018, guided by the enchanting lead vocal of Romina Kalsi.

Animor expertly blends diverse influences to craft a sound that is both fresh and introspective.

The band have released 8 singles since 2018, all of which have been extensively played throughout Swiss national radio stations, with "Wild Dog" earning over 1.3M Spotify streams. With their 1st single for 2026, "Another One," the group continues to evolve, growing their popularity, expressing their artistic journey and connecting with audiences through relatable and emotive storytelling. Their debut album is due for release in the spring of 2026. What began as a chance encounter in an Austrian songwriting camp has blossomed into a creative amalgamation spanning across Finland, Switzerland and throughout the world. Animor typically performs live as a quintet.

Touring Band Members:

Romina Kalsi	(Lead Vocals, Switzerland)
Tobias Granbacka	(Piano, Vocals, Finland)
Daniel Fagerudd	(Guitar, Finland)
Nelide Bandello	(Drummer, Verona, Italy)
Eveline Lucchini	(Bassist, Switzerland)

With thought provoking lyrics and captivating melodies, Animor is poised to make a significant mark on the global indie music scene, inviting listeners to join them on their musical adventure.

Website: <https://www.animormusic.com>
Music: <https://www.animormusic.com/music>
EPK: <https://www.animormusic.com/epk>
Email: info@animormusic.com